Sharing God's Love Royally...

Thursday Games Return!

Trust Walk

(Pairs, low activity)

Take your family member on a walk. One person is blindfolded or keeps their eyes closed while being carefully lead around by their family member. The person leading looks out for objects that could hurt the blinded person when bringing them to different places, having them touch or smell various objects to notice different textures. The linked person tries to simply experience the objects and textures as they are without naming them.

Stand Up

(pairs, Moderate)

Sit on the ground with your partner back to back, knees bet and link arms together. The object it to work cooperatively to stand together at the same time. You you master the pairs, try and add more family members!
